ORAL ORDER
(Passed on 12th April, 2007)

This Court by its order dated 27.11.01 while entertaining the Revision Petition No.745 of 2001 had granted the following interim order which reads as under :

> "In the meanwhile, further proceedings before the trial Court shall remain stayed until further orders."

(2) It is the allegation of the petitioner that inspite of the interim order passed by this Court, the respondents are trying to make some constructions on the disputed land, therefore, according to the petitioner, they are disobeying the interim directions issued by this Court.

(3) What was stayed by this Court is only further proceedings before the trial Court and there was no order regarding maintenance of status quo of the disputed land.

(4) Since the orders passed by this Court did not prevent the other side to proceed with the construction, I am of the opinion that the allegation made by the petitioner in this contempt petition would not amount to disobedience of the orders and directions issued by this Court. In view of this, I do not intend to take cognizance of this contempt petition and it is accordingly rejected. Ordered accordingly.
